Summer Reading Program Activities

There's fun stuff to do all summer long!

Be sure to stop in each week for library activities (like scavenger hunts), take home activities and crafts, and weekly prize drawings. We'll have new stuff all summer long at the library, so stop in and check it out (or keep up to date on Facebook)!

Kids Crafts

All kids' crafts are at 3:30pm. Signup is required. Signups will be available 2 weeks before the craft date.

June 13—Button Making

June 18—Paint a Cupcake (and a movie)

June 24—Mondrain Inspired Art Project

July 7—Found Materials Painting

July 16—Perler Beads & Bead Pets

July 21—Pour Art

Wrap Up Party

July 26th, 11am—1pm

The Foam Party is back! Come join us as we wrap up the summer reading program for the year with foam, pizza, face painting, and goody bags for all summer reading participants. Please sign up beforehand so we know how much food to get. Everyone is welcome!

Summer Concert

July 12, 11am – Ben Traverse:
“American Folk: Old Times
in the Current Times”

free and open to the public

Folk musician Ben Traverse will present this educational, interactive concert that shows attendees how folk music in the US has changed and evolved over the years. Complete with singalongs and background information, this concert will be perfect for all ages.

Weekly Prize Drawings

Each week when you complete activities at the library (take home crafts, scavenger hunts, etc) you will get an entry into the weekly prize drawing! Don't like this week's prize? Save your entry for next week!
