

HOPKINS DISTRICT LIBRARY

Summer Reading Events For Adults

Restorative Reads Bookclub:

Wednesday, June 30th @6pm

Wednesday, July 28th @6pm

Restorative Reads, a book club for adults focusing on feel-good reads is held on the last Wednesday of every month at 6pm. Please stop into the library to check out your copy of the bookclub title.

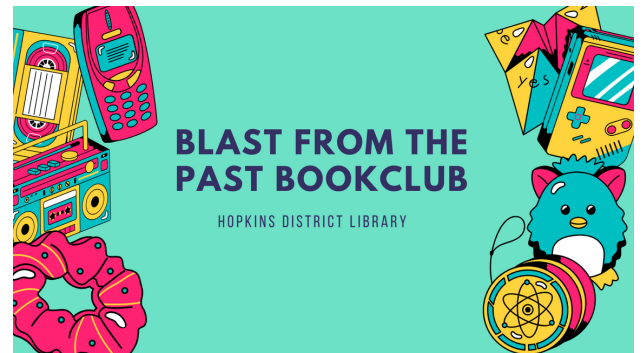

We look forward to seeing you!

Blast From the Past Bookclub:

June 9th @6pm

July 14th @6pm

Looking for a nostalgic read?! Join us for "Blast from the Past Book Club!" We will read popular books from the 80s, 90s, and 2000s! Our first read will be "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone," copies will be available for check out at the library starting May 14th.

Community Plant Swap:

Saturday, June 19th @ 10am

Join local plant lovers for a fun plant swap at the Hopkins District Library! HDL is partnering with the Hopkins Houseplant Lovers group to bring you this very special event! Just stop into the library with one, or two, or MORE healthy plants (potted or bare root) for trade. There will be a table for freebies at the event. The plant swap will start at 11am sharp.

Friday Fun Day Crafts!: Stop into the library every Friday throughout Summer Reading to pick up your take-and-make craft kit! There will be a beginner level craft and a more intermediate level craft each week. Kits will be available while supplies last.

HOPKINS DISTRICT LIBRARY

Summer Reading Events For Adults

AUTHOR TALK AND READING WITH
D.M. GREENWALD

Hopkins District Library

Author Talk and Reading with D.M.Greenwald:

Monday, July 26th @6pm

Meet author D.M Greenwald at the Hopkins District Library! Greenwald is the author of several titles, but he will speak specifically about the Jenny Dog and the Son of Light series, a grouping of books ideal for teens, young adults, and adults of all ages.

Greenwald will read an excerpt from his book, Frozen Moon, and share his experiences as a dog trainer, a writer, and an author dealing with agents, publishers, and the self-publishing process. Copies of Greenwald's books will be available for purchase at the event. You don't want to miss this great talk!

Tales to Tails Photo Contest:

Submissions due by Monday, July 7th

To go along with our animal theme this year, we are offering a photo contest! Take a snapshot of your favorite animal friend! Send your submission to hopkins.mi.library@gmail.com by July, 7th in order to be eligible for the winning prize. The top photo in the teen category will be chosen based on social media response from patrons, and the winning photographer will receive a gift card!

PHOTO CONTEST

Hopkins District Library

Watercolor Tutorial with Illustrator Gina Stevens:

July 21st @6pm

Learn watercolor techniques and create a beautiful willow tree painting with Artist/Illustrator/Author Gina Stevens. This free event is limited to 15 individuals, so be sure to call the library to reserve your spot. Stevens is the author/illustrator of 'A Tree Could Be,' a beautifully written and illustrated children's book. Copies of this wonderful book will be available for purchase at the event